

It's never too late

More Than One Income:

Five signs it might be time to create more freedom, choice and income

By Julie Christie

Before we begin...

If we've never met before, I'm really glad you're here.

This isn't another guide promising six figures in six weeks, hustling harder or adding another job to your already busy life.

It's about something much simpler... Choice.

Because I've come to believe that when we only have one way of earning, we often feel like we only have one way of living.

And that's not a great place to be... I know!

I did what so many of us do.

I worked hard.

Looked after everyone else.

Built a career.

Ticked all the boxes.

And one day I realised...

I'd become so busy building a life that I'd forgotten to ask whether it was the life I actually wanted.

Maybe that's why you've downloaded this too.

So let's have a coffee together, and see if any of this sounds familiar...

Before we really start...

I spent over twenty years building a successful career.

Like so many women, I believed working hard would eventually give me freedom.

Then I realised something.

Freedom doesn't arrive one day.

We have to build it.

I believe it's never too late to build a life you don't need a retirement from.

A note from me...

I don't believe women need fixing!

I think we need reminding.

Reminding that our experience matters.

That our best years aren't behind us.

That freedom is something we can build.

One decision at a time.

If this little guide gives you hope... then it's done exactly what I hoped it would.

Sign One

You secretly wish life felt more secure

Not richer.

Not flashy.

Just...

...less fragile

You'd love to know that if something unexpected happened...

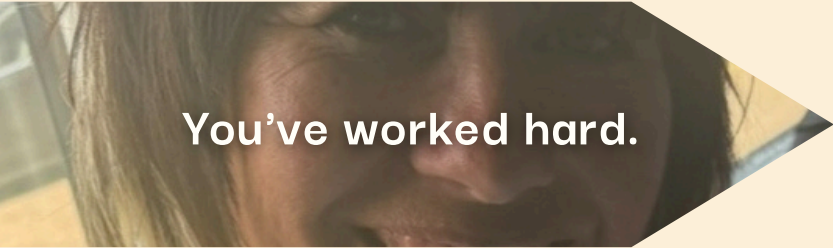

...you'd have options.

That isn't being negative.

It's being realistic.

You're successful...
...but you don't feel free.

You've worked hard.

Built a career.

Ticked all the boxes.

So why does it still feel as though your time belongs to someone else?

You keep wondering... ..."Is this really it?"

Not because you're unhappy.

Because you've grown.

The life that suited you ten years ago might not be the life you want for the next twenty.

And that's OK...

Actually...
It's exciting!

You've spent years
building experience...

...but none of it works for you
while you're asleep.

Think about everything you've learned over the last twenty or thirty years.

The problems you've solved.

The people you've helped.

The experience you've earned.

Isn't it interesting that all of that value only creates income while you're working?

Maybe it's time
some of it started working for you.

You don't really want another job.

You want...

...more breathing space.

And possibly...

More choices.

More flexibility.

More purpose.

More life.

There's a difference.

Take a moment

Which sign felt most like you?

What would having more choice actually change?

Would it mean...

- ☐ retiring earlier?
- ☐ travelling more?
- ☐ helping your children?
- ☐ saying no to work you no longer enjoy?
- ☐ sleeping better?
- ☐ finally believing you've got options?

Because this isn't really about building another income.

It's about building a life
you don't want to escape from.

What happens next?

If you recognised yourself in three or more of these signs...

Perhaps this isn't the end of a guide?

Perhaps it's the beginning of a different conversation.

One about freedom.

One about choice.

One about creating a future that feels exciting again.

That's the conversation I'm passionate about having with women every single day!

And it's why I created...

It's never too late

If this guide has helped you see what's possible...

I'd love to hear your story and what resonated
most with you.
